

File court documents

anytime, anywhere with TexFile

Beginning this year, the Office of Court Administration is converting the State e-filing system from Texas.gov to TexFile, a more robust solution that makes it easier to file electronically.

TexFile benefits include:

- Full intergration with e-filing service providers – no need to switch
- Low cost filing any time, from any Internet-ready computer
- Enhanced reporting and financial reconciliation
- Quick access to file-stamped copies of your court documents
- Comprehensive training and support materials, including web-based tutorials
