

FILING A REPAIR AND REMEDY CASE

JURISDICTION:

Repair and Remedy Case:

A repair and remedy case is a lawsuit filed by a residential tenant under Chapter 92, Subchapter B of the Texas Property Code to enforce the landlord's duty to repair or remedy a condition materially affecting the physical health or safety of an ordinary tenant. The relief sought can be for no more than $10,000.00, excluding statutory interest and court costs but including attorney fees, if any. Repair and remedy cases are governed by Rules 500-507 and 509 of Part V of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

VENUE:

General Rule. Generally, a defendant in a repair and remedy case is the landlord to the tenant and can be sued in one of the following venues:

1. The county where the defendant resides;
2. The county and precinct where the contract or agreement, if any, that gave rise to the claim was to be performed; or
3. The county and precinct where the property is located.

FILING SUIT:

The responsibility for filling out your petition and civil case information sheet rests with you. Court clerks will assist you if you have procedural questions. The filing fee is forty six ($46.00) and the service fee is eighty five ($85.00) per defendant to be served in Guadalupe County, for a total of one hundred thirty one ($131.00). If the defendant(s) resides outside of Guadalupe County, contact the court for service fees of other counties.

CITATION:

The citation is sent to the Guadalupe County Constable for service. Out of County service is sent to the Sheriff or Constable of the county in which the defendant(s) reside or any manner authorized for service of citation in district, county or justice court. You as Plaintiff are responsible for providing a correct address for service.

DISCOVERY:

Pretrial Discovery. Pretrial discovery is limited to that which the judge considers reasonable and necessary. Any request for pretrial discovery must be presented to the court for approval by written motion. The motion must be served on the responding party. The discovery request must not be served on the responding party unless the judge issues a signed order approving the request. Failure to comply with a discovery order can result in sanctions.

REPRESENTATION:

You as an individual may represent yourself in Justice Court or you may have an attorney represent you. The Rules of Evidence do not apply in Justice Court.

APPEARANCE FOR TRIAL:

The defendant in the suit is commanded to appear before the Court, on the date and time set by the Court. This date shall be not less than 10 days nor more than 21 days after the petition is filed.

Any party is entitled to a trial by jury. A written demand for a jury must be filed no later than 14 days before the case is set for trial. A party demanding a jury must pay a fee of $22.00. If the demand is not timely, the right to a jury trial is waived.

AFTER JUDGMENT:APPEAL:

Either party may appeal the decision of the Justice court to the County court by filing a written notice of appeal with the Justice Court within 21 days after the date the judge signs the judgment.

THIS COURT DOES NOT COLLECT THE JUDGMENT FOR YOU.

If you receive a judgment and the defendant does not make a motion for a new trial within 14 days or appeal the case within 21 days after the judgment is signed, the following remedies are available:

- ABSTRACT OF JUDGMENT:

The fee is $5.00 for the JP Court to prepare. You should then record the Abstract of Judgment in the County where the defendant resides.

- WRIT OF EXECUTION

If you are granted a judgment against the defendant AND if the defendant does not appeal within 21 days, you may request a Writ of Execution any time after the 30th day after the judgment is signed. A Writ of Execution allows a Sheriff or Constable in the State of Texas to seize nonexempt property from the defendant in order to satisfy the judgment.

The cost of filing a Writ of Execution is $280.00 for filing and service in Guadalupe County.

You may have other remedies available, but they are more complicated and are not covered here. Please consult an attorney for any other remedies you may have to collect your judgment.

If your address changes within a 10 year period following the judgment, it is your responsibility to notify the court of your new address.

IF YOU HAVE PROCEDURAL QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT THE COURT
